

Oral Research Presentation Information for 2021

Oral Research Program at Annual Session:

- Oral Research presentations for the 2021 Annual Session will be recorded lectures only.
- There will be no in-person Oral Research presentations given at the 2021 Annual Session.

Oral Research Presentation Details:

- The recording should be no longer than 10 minutes.
- All presentations must be given in English.
- Recordings are due by Friday, April 2, 2021. Recordings should be uploaded to the Share Drive found at: Share Files
- Email jhittner@aaortho.org when the recording has been uploaded to the Share Drive.
- Oral Research recordings will be available on the 2021 Annual Session webpage until Friday, July 2, 2021.
- COSA will not be holding over any accepted 2021 Oral Research presentations to be presented at the 2022 Annual Session.

Oral Research Listing:

- As stated in the Invitation to Participate and the online application:

For all published listings of Oral Research presentations, the main author's first name and surname (family name) will be listed. If there is only one co-author, then their first name and surname will be listed after the main author. If there are two or more co-authors, then their names will not be listed and the listing will be the main author followed by "et al."

All co-authors should be listed on the first slide of the Oral Research presentation.

Certificate of Attendance:

- A Certificate of Attendance at Annual Session will be available OnSite only.
- The certificate will be available at the Registration desk.
- The certificate is only available for international attendees.

Oral Research Thank You Letter:

- A thank you letter will be emailed to the presenter after the Oral Research presentation has been posted to the Annual Session webpage.

Certificate of Participation in Oral Research Program at Annual Session:

- No Certificate of Participation is given for participating in the Oral Research program – only a thank you letter is given. See section titled Oral Research Thank You Letter above.